Caregivers and seniors to be honored at Reds game

Cincinnati (Aug. 6, 2008) Caregivers, seniors and staff of social service agencies that work with them will be honored during a presentation before the Reds-Houston Astros game on Friday evening, Aug. 8, at Great American Ballpark.

The presentation, which begins at 6:50 p.m., is sponsored by the Hamilton County Department of Job and Family Services (HCJFS) and Council on Aging of Southwestern Ohio (COA).

In addition to the Aug. 8 presentation, HCJFS and COA will have information booths on the third base concourse at the following upcoming games: Aug. 6, Sept. 2, Sept. 4, and Sept. 18.

Those to be honored are standing in as ambassadors for the thousands of local residents who devote countless hours to the care of disabled seniors. The care they provide helps seniors avoid unnecessary institutionalization and is a vital component of the nation's health care system and economy.

The honorees are:

- Caregiver Deborah McCharque, of Northside, and her mother, Maria Molina
- Caregiver Angela Shupert, of Franklin, Ohio (cares for her father, Jerry Neal, who will not be present at the event)
- Caregivers and sisters, Rhoda Thompson and Bess Johnson of Middletown (care for their mother, Linetta Johnson, who will not be present)
- Danny Green, a caregiver for his elderly grandmother, who was assisted by Adult Protective Services in keeping her at home for the greater part of her senior life.
- Eugene Martin, who was assisted by Adult Protective Services in obtaining suitable housing and maintaining his independence.

HCJFS and COA provide numerous public services to older adults, their families and caregivers, including:

- Protection from abuse, neglect and exploitation (HCJFS – Adult Protective Services, 421-LIFE reporting hotline)
- Medicaid (HCJFS and COA – health insurance for the poor and PASSPORT home care services)
- Supplemental Security Income (HCJFS – services to people with disabilities)
- Caregiver Education and Support (COA)
- Services to keep seniors independent in their homes (COA - Meals on Wheels, homemaker help, etc.)
- Information and resources (HCJFS and COA)

“So many people need the services of both Hamilton County Job and Family Services and Council on Aging, but often they don’t become aware of all we offer until they’re in some kind of crisis,” said HCJFS Director Moira Weir. “Senior Services and Caregiver Night will spread the word and at the same time honor some very giving and selfless people.”

“Both our agencies make a huge difference in the quality of life of many of our most vulnerable citizens,” said Council on Aging CEO Suzanne Burke. “By providing in-home services, support for family caregivers and protection from abuse or neglect, we keep seniors safe in their own homes.”

About Hamilton County Department of Job and Family Services

The Department of Job and Family Services administers federal, state and local programs for those in need. The Department helps with local child protection, elderly protection, child care, child support enforcement, workforce development, cash assistance, food stamp disbursement and Medicaid disbursement. Servicing Hamilton County since 1947, the Department helps hundreds of thousands each year and is accredited by the Council on Accreditation, an international, independent, not-for-profit child and family service accrediting organization.

About Council on Aging

Council on Aging of Southwestern Ohio (COA) is a nonprofit organization dedicated to enhancing the quality of life for older adults and their families. Founded in 1970, COA is designated by the state of Ohio as the Area Agency on Aging for Butler, Clermont, Clinton, Hamilton and Warren counties. COA plans, coordinates, funds and administers programs for an area that is home to more than 252,000 adults age 60 and older. Through its programs and services, COA promotes choice, independence, dignity and well-being of older adults through a range of community-based services that help them remain in their homes for as long as possible.
