Hamilton County Highlights Child Available for Adoption

Cincinnati (Aug. 2, 2010) A 12-year-old girl who is thinking about a career in nursing is August's Waiting Child at Hamilton County's Department of Job and Family Services.

Hamilton County is spotlighting some of the children it has available for adoption with monthly releases to local media.

"We're looking at innovative ways of getting our children before the public so we can find them safe, loving homes," said Moira Weir, director of the department. "Every child deserves a permanent home and we know there are hundreds of loving families throughout this community who would be willing to open up their doors and their hearts to our children."

A bright and personable pre-teen, Jacqueline loves reading fiction books, going to the mall, or playing sports and games with her friends. Not only is she talented at school and in sports; on top of all of it, she's also a great singer!

Her creative streak means she is equally happy making crafts or performing science lab experiments. Her interests span across a wide variety of activities, from skating and riding her bike, to reading or watching the latest Disney movie.

Hamilton County currently has about 215 children available for adoption. The county's Children's Services Division often must take custody of children who are the victims of abuse or neglect and cannot be safely reunited with their families. Those interested in adopting can learn more at www.hckids.org or by calling (513) 946-1000 or e-mailing adoption@jfs.hamilton-co.org.
