Hamilton County Highlights Child Available for Adoption

Cincinnati (August 1, 2011) A 15-year-old girl who loves to sing and dance in drama productions is August's Waiting Child at Hamilton County and Family Services.

Hamilton County is spotlighting some of the children it has available for adoption with monthly releases to local media.

"We're looking at innovative ways of getting our children before the public so we can find them safe, loving homes," said Moira Weir, director of the department. "Every child deserves a permanent home and we know there are hundreds of loving families throughout this community who would be willing to open up their doors and their hearts to our children."

Taylor is a sweet teen who loves to sing, dance and play dress-up. This quiet young lady may be shy at first, but she does well on stage and is able to perform in front of a crowd. Taylor is involved in drama at school and doesn't miss an opportunity to showcase her talents.

Like most teenagers her age, music and television are defining points in her life. She doesn't have a musical preference, but will listen to just about anything. She also enjoys taking long walks and roller skating.

Taylor would do best with a family that is always on the go, but has enough time to interact with her on a personal and individual level. She loves one-on-one attention and would benefit from a nurturing, patient family.

Hamilton County currently has about 215 children available for adoption. The county's Children's Services Division often must take custody of children who are the victims of abuse or neglect and cannot be safely reunited with their families.
