Agency upgrades Web site to better serve the public

CINCINNATI, OH (April 18, 2003) – Hamilton County Department of Job and Family Services today announced the launch of a new, improved Web site: www.hcjfs.hamilton-co.org.

The upgraded site is designed to better serve the needs of key agency audiences, such as clients, the public (students, researchers, job-seekers, etc.), volunteers/donors, foster and adoptive parents, the media and community providers.

Among the site's features are: Today at HCJFS (links to the latest agency news), updated agency program descriptions and contact information, trends and statistics, press releases, job openings, links to community resources and a powerful search engine. For the first time, site usage can be precisely measured.

We welcome feedback about the Web site. Please e-mail any comments to comm@jfs.hamilton-co.org.

Hamilton County Job and Family Services (HCJFS) is the largest combined public human services agency in Ohio—welfare, child support and child protection programs all administered by a single organization. HCJFS programs are: Adult Services, Child Care Services, Child Support Services, Children's Services, Income Maintenance, Health Services/TB Control and Workforce Development.
