Grant Name: Legal Assistance for Victims Grant Program, CFDA # 16.524

Funder: US DOJ/Office of Violence Against Women

Eligibility: 501(c)(3)'s, and publicly funded organizations not acting in a governmental capacity, such as law schools. To be eligible for a grant, applicants are required to enter into a collaborative working relationship with a nonprofit, nongovernmental sexual assault and/or domestic violence program in the community to be served Award Range/Funding Period: The award ceiling is $850,000.

Summary: The Legal Assistance for Victims (LAV) Grant Program is intended to increase the availability of civil and criminal legal assistance necessary to provide effective aid to adult and youth victims of domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, or sexual assault who are seeking relief in legal matters arising as a consequence of that abuse or violence. Criminal legal assistance is limited to criminal matters relating to domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, and sexual assault. The LAV Program awards grants to law school legal clinics, domestic violence victims' shelters, bar associations, sexual assault programs, private nonprofit entities, Indian tribal governments and tribal organizations, territorial organizations, legal aid or statewide legal services, and faith and/or community-based legal service providers. Grant funds may be used to provide direct legal services to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking in matters arising from the abuse or violence and to provide enhanced training for lawyers representing these victims. The objective of the LAV Program is to develop innovative, collaborative projects that provide quality representation to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking.

SMALLER GRANTS

ALA American Library Association

Grant Name: Benjamin Franklin: In Search of a Better World (Traveling Exhibition)

Funder: ALA/National Endowment for the Humanities

Eligibility: Public, academic and special libraries.

Award Range/Funding Period: $1,000 for exhibit-related expenses and the traveling exhibit for a 6-week loan period.

Summary: The exhibit will give public audiences the opportunity to explore and to talk about Franklin's life, his contributions to the founding of this country, and his high standards for work, citizenship, and contribution to community. It will look at his background, his self-education, and his philosophical and religious beliefs and their effect on his work and life. It will show Franklin in the context of the eighteenth century and as a product of his times—a brilliant and rather unconventional product of his times—rather than as the venerable bespectacled and grandfatherly figure with whom we are all familiar.
